

Court of Appeals, State of Michigan

ORDER

Michael White v Michael Riness

Docket No. 347924

LC No. 18-030397-CH

Michael F. Gadola, Judge, acting under MCR 7.211(E)(2), orders:

The motion to waive fees is DENIED because appellant being in bankruptcy proceedings is insufficient, without further information, to establish an inability to pay the $100 motion fee for his other pending motion.

To proceed with the other pending motion appellant shall pay the $100 motion fee for filing that motion within 21 days after the date of this order. Alternatively, appellant may file a motion for reconsideration of the present order within that 21-day period. Such a motion for reconsideration should include specific information about appellant's income and significant assets, including the extent to which he currently has the ability to use his income and significant assets.
